

How Are Students Informed About The Assessment Requirement?

Initially, students learn about the assessment requirement when they work with Admissions Specialists to enroll in a program and during New Student Orientation sessions. Then each program's Academic Advisor will give students more information about the required Exit Assessment. Finally, program instructors assist/guide students to the completion of the Exit Assessment.